Old Business:

Cowboy Church – Church of Christ Kasson – July 10th Lynn Knutson & Jeremy Wahlstrom will give a short presentation about what Faith in Action is all about and what we do for our clients. Plus we should have some brochures available to hand out for those interested.

Dodger Days – June 18th – Sold = 2-Chocolate, 3-Mint Chocolate Chip, 3-Strawberry Swirl, & 1- Vanilla. 1-pail of Vanilla and Chocolate Ice Cream were taken up to the Firehall to serve the Wagon Train people, (about 50 or so). All together we went thru 12 pails. We still have a credit on account of $160.81 at Sunshine Foods. Jeremy will check to see if they can order us some heavy duty spoons as we are running short and will need for Festival in the Park.

Southern Minnesota Initiative Foundation Grant has been submitted for website and promotion purposes.

Client Care Application revisions were discuss and approved, so Cyndi will make those changes and send out to all board members to approve one more time. Also some slight changes to the Volunteer application were also made. Once approved, Diane will get these up on our Website for use.

Festival in the Park – August 11th & 12th – Lynn Knutson and Chris Snow will coordinate. Lynn will ask Jim Burmiester about using one of his Thrivent funds.

Marigold Days – September 10th & 11th – Diane Krejci will coordinate. Lynn Knutson will use one of his Thrivent funds for this event.

Soup & Pie supper – October 10th – Diane Krejci will check with United Methodist Church to see if we can use their church for this event.

Meeting adjourned. Next FIA Board mtg – July 28th, 2022 at Faith Lutheran Church, Dodge Center – 5:15pm
